

Away from the hustle and bustle of the cities, nestled in the serene hills, lies The Quality Resort, Riverview. Located halfway, on the Mumbai-Goa Highway, Chiplun, is a perfect getaway destination to unwind, relax and rejuvenate your spirits

THE PERFECT GETAWAY DESTINATION

This hotel offers a panoramic view of the valley down below and of the meandering Vashishti River, invoking the spirit of nature. Visitors can commune with the clouds, have a moon bath or dream under a starry sky. It offers a perfect panacea for frayed nerves and one emerges cleansed, refreshed and revitalized.

The resort offers 37 spacious air-conditioned rooms, each with its own private balcony, beautiful views of the gardens and the gently flowing Vashishti river. The room facilities include a mini bar, televisions, bathrobes, tea and coffee makers and electronic safes. Each room has two queen-size beds with cozy quilts, ideal for a family of four or for sharing during conferences.

The visitors can dine at a place of their choice - at the Riverview restaurant, on their private balcony, out on the sprawling, nine acre lawns, by the swimming pool or nestled away in the forest. The chef can be requested to prepare a special meal for that special occasion.

The city dwellers love the open spaces, the manicured gardens and the forested land on the property. They can explore the gardens and the forest or visit the nursery. They can indulge in long lazy walks, swim, play a game of tennis, badminton or lawn croquet. The option of simply ignoring the world and having a nice massage or huddling up with a book is also available.

A boat ride on the Vashishti river, a delicious packed picnic lunch at the beautiful beaches nearby, a short walk to the famous Parshuram temple or to the various forts in the area, and a stunning drive to Koyna Dam can also be undertaken.

For those who must work and play, the conference facilities provide for a perfect destination. The Riverview is an ideal conference hotel that encourages your team to work hard while offering them a chance to unwind and indulge in a wide range of outdoor activities that can be arranged at a short notice. ■
